CINÉFEST SUDBURY ANNOUNCES EARLY SELECTION OF WORLD DOCUMENTARIES FOR THE 2018 FESTIVAL

SUDBURY – Cinéfest Sudbury is delighted to announce an early selection of some of the most innovative and thought provoking documentaries from countries around the world. Prepare yourself to experience diverse perspectives on cultural matters from an assortment of filmmakers presented in the World Doc program.

My Generation* [David Batty, United Kingdom, 2017]

British film icon Michael Caine narrates and stars in My Generation, the vivid and inspiring story of his personal journey through 1960s London. Based on personal accounts and stunning archival footage, Batty's film sees Caine travel back in time to talk to The Beatles, Twiggy, David Bailey, Mary Quant, The Rolling Stones, David Hockney, and other star names. My Generation has been painstakingly assembled over six years to tell the story of the birth of pop culture in London, through the eyes of the young Michael Caine. "For the first time in history the young working class stood up for ourselves and said; we're here, this is our society and we're not going away!" My Generation uses carefully intercut audio of Caine's conversations with his co-stars blended with unseen archive material to take the movie viewer back to the heart of the 1960s. In one poignant sequence we accompany Caine as he drives through Piccadilly Circus—today overlaid with original 60s film to create a remarkable time travel effect.

Studio 54* [Matt Tyrnauer, United States, FilmsWeLike, 2018]

Studio 54 was the epicenter of 70s hedonism—a place that not only redefined the nightclub, but also came to symbolize an entire era. Its co-owners, Ian Schrager and Steve Rubell, two friends from Brooklyn, seemed to come out of nowhere to suddenly preside over a new kind of New York society. Now, 39 years after the velvet rope was first slung across the club's hallowed threshold, a feature documentary tells the real story behind the greatest club of all time.
