WHAT THEY HAD PRESENTED AS THE SUNDAY NIGHT GALA PRESENTATION

SUDBURY – Cinéfest Sudbury International Film Festival is thrilled to announce that What They Had will be presented as the Sunday Night Gala Presentation at the 30th edition of the Festival.

What They Had will screen Sunday, September 16 at 7 p.m. at SilverCity Sudbury. A catered reception, courtesy of Mr. Prime Rib, will take place following the screening at the Laking Toyota Showroom, 695 Kingsway, starting at 9:00 p.m.

What They Had [Elizabeth Chomko, United States, Elevation Pictures, 2018]

Starring: Hilary Swank, Blythe Danner, Michael Shannon, Taissa Farmiga, and Robert Forster

During a bout of dementia, Ruth (Danner) gets out of bed at night and wanders off into a blizzard. Ruth's brief disappearance triggers the homecoming of her daughter Bridget (Swank) and teenage granddaughter Emma (Farmiga). The episode also renews lifelong tensions between stubborn patriarch Burt (Forster) and estranged son Nicky (Shannon). As they all debate placing Ruth into a memory-care facility, family ties begin to fray, rekindling a rivalry between the adult siblings. What They Had is Elizabeth Chomko's directorial debut, and features a tour-de-force ensemble cast.

All Gala Film Presentation screenings will take place at SilverCity Sudbury, located at 355 Barrydowne Road.

The 30th edition of Cinéfest Sudbury International Film Festival runs from September 15 – 23, 2018.
