CINÉFEST SUDBURY ANNOUNCES 2018 FIRST CUTS SCREENINGS PROGRAMME

SUDBURY – Cinéfest Sudbury is excited to announce the line-up of the First Cuts program for the 30th edition of the Festival. First Cuts is a program designed to offer filmmakers a unique opportunity to present their debut feature film or experimental project to a critical audience for moderated feedback.

Touched [Karl R. Hearne, Canada, KRH Film, 2017]

Starring: Hugh Thompson, Lola Flanery and John Maclaren

A ghostly, psychological drama about a young woman who disappears from her building and her solitary landlord who tries to track her down. Part murder mystery, part love story between an unlikely father figure and a nine-year-old girl, this dreamlike, dark and odd film explores both sociopathy and the fragile power of human kindness.

Perspective [B.P. Paquette, Canada, Nortario Films, 2018]

Starring: Stéphane Paquette, Patricia Tedford and Pandora Topp

An experimental drama comprising three characters named Alex involved in a love triangle, Perspective is divided into 9 chapters that were shot over 9 years. The most recent chapter is #7, titled Me, Myself, and I, which concerns a difficult moment between a parent and child; a theatricalized reflection on a relationship now soured; Alex on the verge of a nervous breakdown; and a nightmare.

All film screenings will take place at SilverCity Sudbury, located at 355 Barrydowne Road.

The 30th edition of Cinéfest Sudbury International Film Festival runs from September 15 – 23, 2018.
