Cinefest Sudbury to launch tickets and film programme for hybrid festival on August 26

SUDBURY – The 33rd edition of Cinefest Sudbury International Film Festival is set to take place September 18 – 26, returning to the hybrid in-theatre and virtual format from last year's festival. Cinefest will launch full in-theatre and virtual programming on August 26, 2021, when tickets will also go on sale.

Cinefest is inviting patrons to join in the reveal of the full festival lineup for Cinefest 2021 with a virtual media conference on August 26, which audiences will be welcome to attend at cinefest.com. Following the conference, tickets will be on sale online at cinefest.com and through the Cinefest box office at 40 Larch Street, Suite 103 in Sudbury.

“We are thrilled to be welcoming audiences back to the theatre and to our virtual platform this year,” says Executive Director Tammy Frick. “Our Cinefest team is working hard to ensure that all of our patrons have the ability to access a wide variety of exceptional films in the format most comfortable to each individual.”

Audiences are encouraged to visit cinefest.com or call Cinefest at 705-688-1234 for any questions about tickets, film programming or using the virtual platform. A live chat feature will be available on cinefest.com to answer audience questions starting on August 26.
