Cinéfest Sudbury bringing drama starring Anthony Hopkins to the big screen this month

SUDBURY — Cinéfest Sudbury is set to bring Freud's Last Session to the big screen as part of its 2024 Red Carpet Patron Program. The drama, based on the lives of C.S. Lewis and Sigmund Freud, will screen at SilverCity Sudbury on Wednesday, July 24 at 7:00 p.m.

Set on the eve of the Second World War and featuring two of the greatest minds of the twentieth century, C.S. Lewis (Primetime Emmy Award nominee Matthew Goode, The Crown) and Sigmund Freud (two-time Academy Award winner Anthony Hopkins, The Silence of the Lambs and The Father) converge for their own personal battle over the existence of God and the future of mankind.

Individual tickets are on sale now with limited availability at www.cinefest.com, at the Cinéfest Box Office (located at 40 Larch Street, Unit 103), or by calling 705-688-1234. All Red Carpet Patrons are granted complimentary admittance.

Cinéfest's Red Carpet Patron Program offers access to 6 yearly film screenings, exclusive perks at Cinéfest Sudbury International Film Festival, and more! 2024 Red Carpet Patron Program passes are available now at www.cinefest.com/rcpp.
