Lights! Camera! CTV BEST IN SHORTS!

Cinéfest Sudbury is accepting submissions for the 2019 CTV Best in Shorts Competition, a competition where aspiring and established Northern Ontario filmmakers can win cash prizes! Submissions are judged based on originality, visual storytelling and production value. The competition is open to amateurs, students and mid-career short filmmakers.

CTV Best in Shorts Competition gives filmmakers the opportunity to advance their careers, have their work screened to a festival audience and receive exposure in the film industry. Best of all, finalists will compete for a variety of cash prizes!

OPEN CATEGORY: First Place: $1,250 Second Place: $750

STUDENT CATEGORY: First Place: $1,250

Northern Flicks Award: $750

The Northern Flicks Award will recognize the film that best celebrates aspects of life in Northern Ontario and that inspires people to examine their values and beliefs relating to the environment, health, behaviours and/or social change.

Special Awards of Merit will also be granted by the jury, in categories that may include: Special Jury Award, Camera/Photography, Film Editing, Screenwriting, Experimental, etc.

The deadline for the CTV Best in Shorts competition is Friday, August 16th at 4:30 p.m. A completed entry form must accompany all entries upon submission. You can download the form from our website, at www.cinefest.com/Submissions.
